BOARD & COUNSEL REVIEW

before the meeting. The notice of any members' meeting shall be provided to every member by one of the following methods: (1) mailed postpaid and correctly addressed to the member's address shown in the current records of the Association, or (2) be hand delivered to the member who must in that event sign a receipt, or (3) be electronically transmitted to a correct facsimile number or electronic mail address at which the member has consented to receive notice. Each member bears the responsibility of notifying the Association of any change of address. Consent by a member to receive notice by electronic transmission shall be revocable by the member by written notice to the Association. The posting and mailing of the notice shall be affected not less than fourteen (14) days, nor more than sixty (60) days prior to the date of the meeting. Proof of notice shall be given by affidavit.

Notice of specific meetings may be waived by a member before or after the meeting and the attendance of any member shall constitute such member's waiver of notice of such meeting, except when attendance is for the express purpose of objecting at the beginning of the meeting to the transaction of business because the meeting is not lawfully called.

- 4.4 Quorum. A quorum at members' meetings shall be obtained by the presence, either in person or by proxy, of a majority of the total voting interests of the members.
- 4.5 Voting. The acts approved by a majority of the votes present in person or by proxy at a meeting at which a quorum shall have been attained shall be binding upon all unit owners for all purposes, except where otherwise provided by law, the Declaration, the Articles or these Bylaws.
- 4.6 Proxies. Votes may be cast in person or by proxy. A proxy may be made by any person entitled to vote, but shall only be valid for the specific meeting for which originally given and any lawful adjourned meetings thereof. In no event shall any proxy be valid for a period longer than 90 days after the date of the first meeting for which it was given. Every proxy shall be revocable at any time at the pleasure of the person executing it. A proxy must be filed in writing, signed by the person authorized to cast the vote for the unit and filed with the Secretary before the appointed time of the meeting, or before the time to which the meeting is adjourned. Holders of proxies must be persons eligible to cast a vote on behalf of a unit as set forth in Section 3.2 of these Bylaws, or a spouse, significant other, or other adult family member of an eligible voter. For purposes hereof, a "significant other" shall mean a person who resides with the owner and is designated by the owner to qualify as such.

Except as specifically otherwise provided in this paragraph, members may not vote by general proxy, but may vote by use of a limited proxy. Both limited proxies and general proxies may be used to establish a quorum. Limited proxies shall be used for votes taken to waive or reduce reserves; for votes taken to waive financial reporting requirements; for votes taken to amend the Declaration, the Articles of Incorporation, or Bylaws; and for any other matter which the Florida Condominium Act requires or permits a vote of the unit owners. General proxies may be used for other matters for which limited proxies are not required, and may also be used in voting for non-substantive changes to items for which a limited proxy is required and given. No proxy may be used to vote on the election of directors. The election of directors shall be by ballot in accordance with Section 5.3 of these Bylaws.

An executed proxy appearing to have been transmitted by the proxy giver, including a facsimile or equivalent reproduction of a proxy, is a sufficient proxy.

Sec. 3.2 (p. 3): Outdated reserve waiver clause contradicts mandatory post-milestone SIRS requirements.

Statutory / Legal Reference: Fla. Stat. § 718.112(2)(f) (HB 1021)

Statutory Comparison: Effective under HB 1021, condominium and cooperative associations cannot waive or reduce reserves for items required by a Structural Integrity Reserve Study (SIRS), nor use structural reserve funds for non-scheduled purposes without statutory exemptions.

CURRENT WORDING IN DOCUMENT:

for votes taken to waive or reduce reserves; for votes taken to waive financial reporting requirements; for votes taken to amend the Declaration, the Articles of Incorporation, or Bylaws; and for any other matter which the Florida Condominium Act requires or permits a vote of the unit owners.

SAMPLE DISCUSSION WORDING (FOR HOA ATTORNEY REVIEW):

Provided, however, that reserve funding for components covered by a Structural Integrity Reserve Study (SIRS) pursuant to Fla. Stat. § 718.112(2)(g) cannot be waived, reduced, or used for any purpose other than their designated structural replacement.
